June 13th Delegate Meeting @ Brookdale in University Park

For our June 13th Delegate Meeting we return to the University Park neighborhood, and will convene at Brookdale (formerly the Heritage Club), 2010 South Monroe Street, 80210. As usual, networking over coffee at 8:30 am, and the official meeting from 9– 11:30 am.

Our guest speaker will be Jeff Sheppard, award-winning architect and author of the recent Denver Post editorial, Denver is a great city, so why the bad buildings?

This should be a lively presentation on a DenverINC hot topic. MORE INFO

We determined at the time that, given questions being raised about the true nature of this project, we did not have enough information to make an informed decision. Read More

From the President

Larry Ambrose

The Neighborhoods Are Moved

"In the past, elected officials, once in office, were pretty much used to placating their neighborhood folks and organizations. They knew that not much was going to effect their future elections as long as they fixed the potholes. When they received concerns and questions from community activists they perceived as a few, mostly older people, that claim to represent a much larger group of residents, they could gently disregard them. But, things are changing in the big city." Continue reading →
